Film Title: 1917

Director: Sam Mendes

Genre: Historical Action

The phone lines have been cut so two men have to send a message to the other troops that they are going to be attacked by the Germans. They cut across no-man's land but one loses his friend half way through the journey.

The actors are George McKay, Richard Madden and Dean-Charles Chapman.

I loved this film because it was interesting and based on a true story as well.

I would rate it 9 out of 10

I would recommend it to secondary schools because there is swearing and it is a mature film.
